

February 2011

Shine Harnessing Smarter Senses Project

Eoin Motherway – Bank New York Mellon

Denis Collins – IBM & Chairman of IT@ Cork

Three Phased Approach

1. Sensory Garden
2. Sensory Information Technology
3. A new Educational Future –
“The SHINE Way”

The Sensory Garden Project – Stage 1

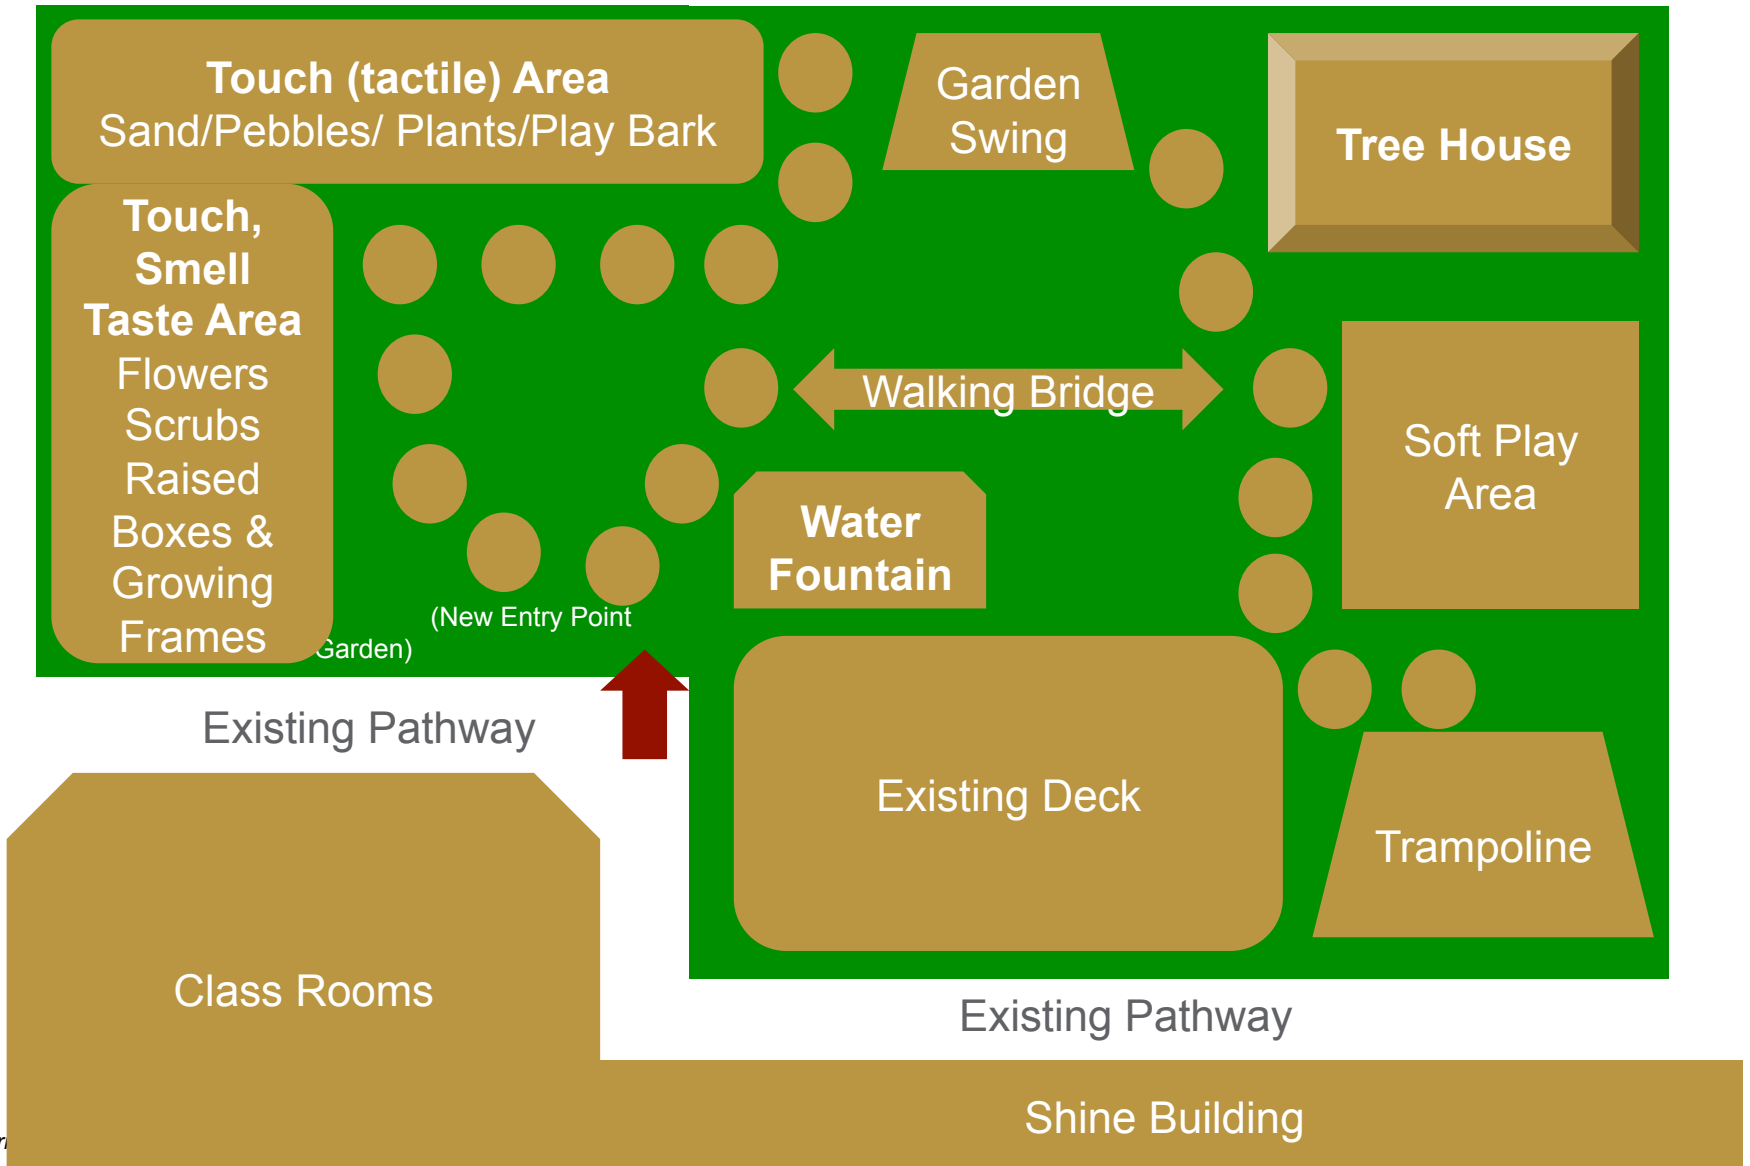

Eoin Motherway

- Partnership Approach, Directed Guidance from Shine Executive
- ReDevelop The Existing Play Area at Back of Shine Centre
- Funds Raised By The Local Cork Office Staff
- Matching Programme From BNY Mellon Corporate
- Human Capital Complimenting Financial Capital

Current Site For Sensory Garden & Play Area

Proposed Senory Garden Layout : With Sensory Area & Play Area

Benefits Of This Project To Children With Autism

A Safe Place To Play & Have Fun

Sensory Integration Therapy

Tactile Sensory Area

Addresses Anxiety Issues

Addresses Challenging Behaviours

Quiet Place/Time

Physical Activity Developing Muscle Mass

Fine Motor Skills

Gross Motor Skills

Coordination

Balance

The Sensory IT Project – Stage 2

Denis Collins – IBM and IT@ Cork

- Business Analyst To Critically Evaluate IT Needs. Two Visits To Date
- Leverage The IT and CRC Resources of IBM
- Leverage The IT Resources of it@cork members
- Several corporations in early stage of commitment

An Educational Future – “The SHINE Way” – Stage 3

Eoin Motherway – Bank New York Mellon

Denis Collins – IBM & Chairman of IT@ Cork

- Develop Primary & Secondary School Aids
- Encapsulate goals and thought leadership seeds of SHINE
- Will require funding, support infrastructure (it@cork) & educational body sponsor
- Dialogue has commences on all strands
- Intellectual Property Rights will be protected by

 REILLY & Co SOLICITORS

COMMERCIAL AND TECHNOLOGY LAW

SHINE

SIN E